Plenty enough pace across the track here and there shouldn't be any excuses on that front, all runners should have plenty enough to aim for.

Conclusion/Selection(s)

MOT JUSTE (R Varian) – Ran a sound race in second in the Nell Gwyn last month and gave every indication that a mile is ideally what she wants to be tackling. The Varian yard are in fine form at present (7/19 last 7 days – 11/37 last 14 days... at time of writing) and the Varian/Buick partnership have a decent S/R when teaming up with 3-4yo's on turf (11/36 | 31% S/R – 21% above expectation).

HERMOSA (AP O'Brien) – Looks quite a bit over-priced for this given her Graded form from last season (3rd in a G1, 1st in a G3 and 2nd in 2 G1's) and this step back up to a mile should be right up her street. She handled Newmarket perfectly well when finishing second in the g1 Fillies Mile last October and she looks well worth a dart at tasty odds.
