Ben's thoughts...

STAR OF ORION (525 Newmarket) The draw was against this one last week in the Bunbury Cup so his 6th of 15 is better than it looks and this drop back to a Class 3 for the first time since he won this race off a 3lb higher mark in 2021 may just be what he needs to get back to winning ways. His win in this race 2 years ago was actually his last victory, for all he's run plenty of big race since, often here at Newmarket.
